MARKET UPDATE

IBPA Sukuk Index (SBIX) increased 0.78% in July. Indonesia 10years sharia government bond yield (PBS025) decreased by 9.37bps to 6.4200%. Indonesia's solid fundamental, well maintained inflation and relatively stable currency remained a good catalyst for Indo bond market thus also made as BI decided to maintained the interest rate policy for the sixth time on the last meeting. The fixed-income market was stable in July 2023 despite the Fed raising another 25 bps benchmark rate to 5.50%. The Fed raised the Fed rate on the back of a resilient job market and inflation is still higher than overall inflation. The market sees the consistency of monetary policy is needed to affirm the certainty in fighting against inflation. The narrative of recession has faded and been replaced by soft-landing economic conditions. Bank Indonesia did not hike the benchmark rate on the sight of supporting domestic economic growth. Based on DMO bond flow data as of July 31, Foreign ownership recorded at 1.56% of the outstanding and outflow of Rp7.65tn YTD.
