MARKET UPDATE

European index had positive return in July. FTSE 100 7,699.41 (+2.23%), DAX 16,446.83 (+3.09%). Inflation in the Eurozone dropped to 5.3% in July, down from 5.5% in the previous month. This is the lowest level of inflation recorded since January 2022. ECB hiked its interest rate by 25 bps to 4.25% in the last meeting, in line with consensus (prev/cons: 4%/4.25%) saying inflation is still estimated to remain too high for too long despite the recent slowdown. ECB aims to bring back inflation to its 2% target with a data-dependent approach. BoC stated that consumption and labor market remain persistent and attempt to bring inflation to 3% by next year (May 23: 3.4%). Investors cheered on cooling UK inflation as the Consumer Prices Index rose by 7.3% in June 2023 YoY, down from 7.9% in May 2023. UK retail sales rose by 0.7% MoM in Jun 2023 (prev/cons: 0.1%/0.2%), marked the third straight month of monthly growth. The significant increase was seen in household goods and department stores. However, the number still dropped annually by 1% (prev/cons: -2.3%/-1.5%). UK unemployment rate rose to 4% in May 23, highest since Dec 21 (prev/cons: 3.8%/3.8%). The UK's monthly real GDP declined by 0.1% in May 23, following modest growth of 0.2% in April. JCI rose by 4.045% MoM to 6,931.36 at the end of trading day in July 2023. In July 2023, the domestic economy was becoming stronger with higher PMI Manufacturing (53.3 in Jul23 vs 52.5 in Jun23) and lower inflation (3.1% yoy in Jul23 vs 3.5% yoy in Jun23). Increasing demands and output as well as lower input costs are a solid backbone to expect a better economic condition in the early second semester of 2023. A conducive domestic environment raised the number of tourists in June 2023 to 1.06 million people, although not the same as pre-covid at above 1.5 million people but speedy tourism recovery is very encouraging for the domestic economy. On the other side, total investment in the second quarter of 2023 reached Rp 349.8 trillion, which increased 15.7% yoy where domestic direct investment up 17.6% yoy to Rp 163.5 trillion and foreign direct investment rose 14.1% yoy to Rp 186.3 trillion. The initial investment in 2Q23 was larger outside Java (52%) than in Java (48%).
