MARKET UPDATE

Central Bureau Statistics of Indonesia (BPS) announced April 2024 inflation at +0.25% MoM (vs consensus inflation +0.3%, +0.52% in March 2024). The lower inflation MoM was contributed by the lower price of food group and information and communication group. Bank Indonesia (BI) has taken a surprising step by increasing its benchmark interest rate by 25 basis points to a historic high of 6.25%, in response to the recent depreciation of the Rupiah. Governor Perry Warjiyo characterized this unexpected move as a measure to fortify the stability of the Rupiah against escalating global risks, and to ensure that inflation remains within the target range of 2.5% plus or minus 1% for 2024, which could exacerbate due to imported inflation in food and fuel.
