MARKET UPDATE

The US 10-year treasury note yield decreased by 21 bps to 4.17% by the end of April 2025 and Indonesia 10 years USD global bond yield decreased to 5.30% at the end of April 2025 from 5.39% at the end of March 2025. Thus, the spread widened. In the month of April, JCI posted a return of +3.93% MoM with foreign outflow of Rp21tn. Indonesian equity indices seemingly defy gravity as they made another hefty rebound in April despite the large foreign outflow, depreciating IDR, Trump's reciprocal tariff announcement, and relatively weak domestic macro sentiments. Domestic money inflow were the main support for the equity market given the undemanding valuation of JCI at below pandemic level while local institutional investors were sitting on ample of cash by the end of 1Q25. Blue chip names were on the rise on hopes for higher dividend payouts while consumer staples names were chased as safe haven post Trump tariff announcement. Meanwhile, gold proxies were the stars of the month as gold price rallied to almost USD3500/oz. DXY and USD/IDR movement started to decouple as despite the weaker USD, IDR also continued to depreciate due to domestic sentiments. 1Q25 corporate earnings results were relatively more in-line though still indicated weak growths. Asian markets were showing a cautious optimism during the month. In China, the Q1 2025 GDP growth remained steady at 5.4% YoY from the previous period, and higher than the expectation of 5.2%. The People's Bank of China (PBoC) maintained its 1-year and 5-year loan prime rates at 3.1% and 3.6% respectively as anticipated, during the meeting on April 21, 2025. In April, China's Manufacturing Purchasing Managers' Index (PMI) fell to 49.0, down from 50.5 and below the estimated 49.7. Asia market performance in April were as follows: HK Hang Seng (-4.3%), Shanghai Index (-1.7%), Korea KOSPI (+3.0%), Singapore STI (-3.5%), India Sensex (+3.7%), Thailand SET (+1.8%), Malaysia KLCI (+1.8%) and Philippines PSEI (+3.4%).
