MARKET UPDATE

In the fixed income market the appreciation of Rupiah presented an opportunity for BI to cut rate in May by 25bps to 5.50% as a result IndoGB enjoyed rally with the 10-year traded 3bps lower to 6.83% and 2-year traded 19bps lower to 6.17%. Foreign investors posted a whopping Rp21.7tn net buy in IndoGB and percentage ownership is maintained at 14.5%. Domestic investors also posted net buy in the month of May helping to support yield. Consistent with BI easing policy, Sekuritas Rupiah Bank Indonesia ("SRBI") rates were down to 6.2-6.3% level for 12-month tenor. One-year government bond rallied by 9bps to 6.07%, the 2-year bond also rallied by 19bps to 6.17%. In the money market funds, investments in bond maturing less than one year remains favourable compared to deposit rates. Large maturing SRBI in May likely helped with demand from Banks, and the trend likely to continue in June and July assuming Rupiah does not depreciate significantly. In the month of May, JCI posted a return of +6.04% MoM with foreign inflow of Rp5.5tn. IDX80 posted a MoM return at +6.04%. Indonesia equities continued its rally driven by easing sentiments regarding Trump's tariff as the US President seemingly toned-down pressure on his tariff war. Hence, blue chip names rallied and led the market gain. Strong gold price continued to support the gold proxy names. Rupiah recovery during the month also fuel the market rally during the month. Meanwhile, Bank Indonesia managed to cut rate by 25bps as a result of the strong Rupiah.
