MARKET UPDATE

In the month of October, JCI posted a return of +1.28% MoM, with foreign inflow of Rp13tn. Equity market rallied in October driven by the blue chip names during the month with strong foreign inflow. During the month the new Minister of Finance mentioned that he would like to work together with the Indonesia stock exchange to take actions against cornered stocks which caused spooks among retail investors, hence, conglomerate names collapsed during the month while some retail investors switched to blue chip names. The sentiment against conglomerate names grew more after MSCI announced plans to revise its minimum free float requirement for index inclusion which would exclude ownership by corporation and others from acceptable free float. Meanwhile, 3Q25 earnings results were among the drivers of market in the second half of October as despite relatively still under the weather earnings, some still posts better than expected results. In the Eurozone, the European Central Bank (ECB) kept its three key rates unchanged at its 30 October meeting, emphasizing that inflation remains close to its 2% medium-term target and making no major changes to its inflation outlook. October headline inflation matched expectations at 2.1% year-on-year, but core inflation held firm at 2.4% and services inflation accelerated to 3.4%. Despite the hawkish tone, ECB is keeping the option for further rate cuts open if inflation falls below target in coming years. Economic activity data have reassured investors, with third quarter GDP growth at 0.2%, up from 0.1% in the second quarter, though results varied across major economies. Business sentiment improved in October, with PMI rising, and the European Commission's economic sentiment indicator reached its highest since April 2023, though it remains below the long-term average. Eurozone market performance in October were as follows : FTSE 100 (+3.9%) and Deutsche Boerse AG DAX (+0.3%).
